When Elite Masterchef Judges Visit Kohinoor Elite

Mumbai: Masterchef Australia judges Gary Mehigan and George Calombaris and Australia Consul General Steve Waters visited Hotel Kohinoor Elite in Kohinoor City, Kurla-Vidyavihar, for a Young Chefs contest organized as part of the Oz Fest recently organized in Mumbai.

Young aspiring Indian chefs from Kohinoor IMI School of Hospitality Management, Khandala, showcased Indian cuisine to their idols Gary and George. In true Masterchef style, Gary and George tasted the preparations and not only gave their comments appreciating the good points of each dish and pointing out the shortcomings, but also guided the contestants on how they could make variations in their dishes.

Gary and George also interacted with other students of Kohinoor IMI enthusiastically answering their questions. “All great food comes from the heart”, said Gary, “Indian food is original and there is so much freshness in Indian food,” he added.

Kohinoor Group CMD Unmesh Joshi present on the occasion said, “We are very happy our students are getting a chance to interact with world renowned Masterchef judges Gary and George. We hope this is just a beginning and there will be many more such opportunities.”

Welcoming their visit to Mumbai, the Australia Consul General Steve Waters said, “Gary and George are a great example of Australia’s innovation and diversity. They have been successful in showcasing Australia as a multi-cultural country which is creating a new food culture distinct from other parts of the world. The visit will give Gary and George the opportunity to see, and learn from, Indian cooking who through watching this program, have developed an appreciation of what Australia has to offer”.

A little about Kohinoor

Kohinoor IMI School of Hospitality Management is a part of the Education vertical of the well-diversified Kohinoor Group having a significant presence in education, hospitality, real estate, power and healthcare.

Starting with technical education five decades ago, Kohinoor ventured into higher education at the turn of the millennium with Kohinoor IMI School of Hospitality Management on Kohinoor Global Campus, Khandala. Later, Kohinoor Group went on to form Kohinoor Education Trust which today encompasses Kohinoor Business School & Center for Management Research (KBSCMR) also on the Khandala campus, along with Kohinoor Business School, Kohinoor International School (ICSE), and Kohinoor Blossoms (pre-primary) all located at Kohinoor Education Vidyavihar, Mumbai.
